

University of Mississippi
eGrove

Correspondence: Pro-integration

James Meredith Collection

10-2-1962

Mrs. James Dean to James (2 October 1962)

Mrs. James Dean

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro

Recommended Citation

Dean, Mrs. James, "Mrs. James Dean to James (2 October 1962)" (1962). Correspondence: Pro-integration. 445.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/mercorr_pro/445

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the James Meredith Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence: Pro-integration by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

answered
11/26/62

3170 Walnut Grove Road
Memphis 11, Tenn
October 2, 1962

Dear James

God bless you for your courage and right spirit.

you are an honor to your race. I am deeply ashamed of the people of my race and my native state—Mississippi.

They have forgotten the teachings of their master—
the Golden Rule and the lessons of God as recorded in the Old Testament.

When Miriam made fun of Moses for marrying a dark skinned woman God punished her with leprosy.

you must have a real peace within because you have not returned evil for evil or cursing for cursing.

The students at the University are violating the commandments of God:

"Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil."

They are hypocrites.

They have forgotten God.

I know you are grieved over the injured and the dead. It is for this reason I am writing to "comfort those who mourn."

With deep respect
Mrs James Dean

ANTIQUE POTTERY